Dear Short Salutation,

At Tepeyac, we are busy looking for a new nurse, and coping with the fact that Dr. Bruchalski's health has made him in and out of the office, as you can read more about below. At Divine Mercy Care, our new Executive Director Will Waldron is settling in, and Dr. Anderson recently spoke at the National Right to Life Conference.

You will soon receive a Gala Save the Date and the 2015 Annual Report in your mailbox!

I also invite you to check out our youtube channel. We have premiered amazing new videos like this one explaining the pillars of Tepeyac's Mission: Merciful Medicine, Scriptural Social Justice, and Christ-Centered Relationships.

If you missed it, the Bringing Baby Home class is being offered this summer at a discount. More info here.

You can also read our Summer Appeal Letter and Donate Here. Dr. A and Dr. B are both facing health difficulties, so we appreciate your support to keep our mission going in the meantime! Check out the amazing story of a miraculous twin birth below!

Patient Story: Stopping Pre-Term Labor to Save Twins

"When I was twenty weeks pregnant with my twins, I went into labor. The doctors knew how long we had prayed for those children (they had wept with us when we lost two previous pregnancies) and I knew they valued those lives as much as we did. As a result, they pushed the limits of medication and spent much time in consult and in prayer. 16 weeks later, I delivered two healthy baby boys. I know it is only by God's grace and their bravery that we have our boys. Any other doctor who did not value life like the Tepeyac doctors would have let me deliver them at twenty weeks. My labor was very difficult to stop, but they did it."

Dr. Bruchalski's Health Update

Dear Supporters and Patients,

The goal at Tepeyac and Divine Mercy Care is to transform hearts through healthcare. With my heart, God has decided to take that quite literally.

I was preparing for hernia surgery when my pre-operative appointment showed that I had a heart attack I was previously unaware of. An artery to my heart was 98% blocked, so they put a stent in and I'm doing great.

I want to assure you that, despite the fact that 2 doctors have faced them this year, heart attacks are not contagious. ;)

I am expected to make a full recovery. I may be in the office a few hours a day intermittently when I await the original hernia surgery, which will hopefully happen soon. Please continue to pray for my hard heart.

Always Under His Mercy and Her Mantle,

John T. Bruchalski MD

Dr. Anderson Spoke at National Right to Life Convention!

The Kristen Anderson Perinatal Hospice Program is a special offering of Tepeyac. When a baby is sick and won't live long after birth, most doctors recommend abortion. Not Dr. A – who lovingly accompanies the parents and child on a journey filled with grief – but great healing and love. NRTL asked her and a couple we served to share about their experience.

Watch the Video here!

Don't abort sick babies. Mothers want to be with their children, especially when they are sick!

Father Stefan Starzynski Joined her to share about spiritual healing in the midst of infant loss While a couple shared their personal journey

"The baby that lives like 45 minutes, 25 minutes, maybe a baby dies 3 months in the womb or maybe it lives 3 months, that even if the baby lives 45 minutes, that baby can give more love, and promote more of the sanctity of life, than some people who live to be 95 years old. It's a mystery."

Did you know you can support Tepeyac while keeping your child(ren) reading this summer? With the Summer Reading Challenge, your children collect pledges for each day they read and then apply the pledges toward books for themselves at the end of the program. Usborne Books & More will then donate a percentage in books to Tepeyac for use in its waiting area or baby baskets.
